FROM THE DESK OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR...

I hope that this newsletter finds you all well and enjoying this beautiful, summer weather. Like many of you I will be closely monitoring Vermont's corn fields this month in the hopes that the stalks have exceeded the "knee high by the fourth of July" goal that farmers use to project a good harvest.

Speaking of the month of July, as you know Independence Day is just around the corner. Please plan ahead as the office will be closed on Monday, July 4th in observance of the holiday. Be reminded that the use of fireworks is strictly prohibited on all RHA properties. Thanks so much for your cooperation.

Free Financial Education

The current financial and housing crises make clear how important an understanding of finance is for helping people and communities hold on to their money and personal property. The more you know about credit, consumer rights, and banking services, the more likely you will be able to steer clear of risks, save for your dreams, and better manage what you already have. One place to begin is with the Money Smart program. Money Smart is a financial education course from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). It is designed to help people who may never have had bank accounts learn how to use banks, credit, and money to improve their financial lives.
